When Master ToyMaker Peter Harris turned his attention to reptiles, Crikey Croc the crazy Australian Saltwater Crocodile was born.

Finding the right compromise between a soft

cuddly toy and a fierce Death Roller was a real challenge.

Designed originally for Steve Irwin's Australia

Zoo, Crikey Croc is 1.5
metres of pure manic fun.

He has a massive puppetry jaw for eating other kids, yet his soft silky material makes him the perfect bedtime toy.

On his website you will find lots of fun things
for kids as well - Animations - Games - Stories

PLUS the amazing Aussie Goanna!!
